

Glitter & Razz Productions presents...

Seriously Fun Theater Workshops

10-week afterschool session, March 26-June 7, 2010
at CHABOT ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

At Glitter & Razz Productions, we partner with families and other folks who care about kids to co-create a world where we are all free to be our true and best selves within vibrant, peaceful, creative & caring communities. Theater is a powerful tool towards manifesting this world. When children and youth are involved in theater, they are learning how to speak up, act out, and take center stage. Our Seriously Fun Theater Workshops are open to boys and girls with various degrees of interest and experience with performance and emphasize the skills of cooperation, generosity, focus, reflective practice, and accessing their full creative voice. The session culminates in an original ensemble-created performance and community celebration.
